Starters
Set the table for a great recruitment by making people aware of your Pack and how to get in touch.

PRINT MEDIA
Promote your Pack in local publications. Local news will often run stories provided by community groups. Be sure to provide a good photo, contact info/website, and promote any upcoming joining opportunities.

POSTER CAMPAIGN
Coordinate with local businesses to display a poster promoting your Pack. Think about places where parents of Scout-aged youth are likely to go.

FOOD DELIVERY FLYERS
Ask your favorite pizza delivery place if they would be willing to tape a flyer to their pizza boxes. As we all know, busy parents buy pizza.

SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS
Great for schools that don’t allow direct access. Obtain a spot in the school calendar, website, lunch menu, or school event program.

SOCIAL MEDIA
In addition to being a great communication tool with parents, having a strong presence on Facebook and other social media can be an incredible tool to promote your Pack within your community. Shares and Likes boost visibility.

TOWN MARQUEE
Ask a fire department, school, place of worship, or a movie theatre to feature your pack on their signage.

UNIFORM DAY
Nothing creates more awareness of your Pack than coordinating your Cubs to all wear their uniform on the same day.

Entrees
This is the main course. The cornerstone of any recruitment campaign is a great sign-up event. Your Entrée is served with flyers, yard signs, and your choice of at least 2 sides to make sure you’ve got a crowd ready to join your Pack.

PRIMARY JOINING NIGHT
A single event to satisfy even the hungriest Pack! This should be held at the local elementary school wherever possible. Getting attendance at this sign-up night will be the focus of all of your marketing efforts. We are asking all Packs to select a date in the month of September. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights generally will yield the best turnout. When new parents show-up to a joining night, they are there to sign-up, so don’t spend time trying to sell them on joining. Provide them the information they need and most importantly COLLECT APPLICATION AND REGISTRATION FEES.

SECONDARY JOINING NIGHT
Sometimes even the best of plans can fall prey to things outside of your control. Follow the Scout Motto and “Be Prepared!” Have a follow-up sign-up date on the schedule from the get-go will help.

Signature Sides
The most important part of making your meal successful. The means of personal invitation to joining events.

IN SCHOOL SCOUT TALKS
Whenever possible, talking directly to a group of students about joining Cub Scouts in conjunction with a great flyer is the best means of inviting new youth to join. There are many ways this can be done, so think outside of the box if necessary.

SCOUT TALKS OTHER PLACES
Whether at a place of worship or to a sports team nearing the end of their season, there are more places we can find a captive audience of Scout-aged youth. You can get creative here.

SOCIAL MEDIA
This is where you can use your Packs best resources (the parents of your Cubs) to help promote your upcoming joining event to families they know. This is a highly personal invitation that can be interactive and very effective.

PERSONAL INVITATION LETTER
Use this side to send a personalized and formal invitation to your Pack’s Entrée event. Letters of invitation are more likely to result in attendance if sent from a parent of a Cub in the same grade or even better from the same class. Plan in advance to get your list of invitees built in time for this to be most effective. Use your parents to help.

BRING A FRIEND CARDS
From the Kid’s Menu, this allows your Scouts to take an active part of recruitment. Make up some business cards for your Cubs to pass out to all of their friends.

PARENT ADVOCATE CARDS
Similar to the Bring a Friend Cards, arming your parents with these can turn your whole Pack into recruitment ambassadors. The best news here is that they are already made up for you.

Dessert
Everybody’s favorite part of the meal! And the best part is, dessert can be enjoyed at any time of the year. These activities can help your pack focus on year-round recruitment.

CANDY TREATS
Make a boatload of labels with Pack Information and distribute to your families and ask them to put them on the Halloween candies they are going to distribute neighborhood kids or during various parades that occur throughout the year.

PUBLIC MARKET/CARNIVALS
Having a presence at appropriate community events let’s people know Scouting is alive and well and can be a great experience for your Scouts. Make sure everyone is in uniform and remind them that we are representing Scouting for better or worse when in the public eye.

VISIBLE COMMUNITY PRESENCE
This is a huge part of who we are and what we teach in Scouting. While the service itself is its own reward, let’s not hide all the good work we do in our community. Take part in parades, get involved at your local library, and spread your Pack information. Have Scouts wear uniforms when possible and take good photos. Our local papers gladly run stories of Scouts helping others!
