

1 (9:30AM - 10:20AM)		2 (10:30AM - 11:20AM)		3 (11:30AM - 12:20PM)		4 (1:30PM - 2:20PM)		5 (2:30PM - 3:20PM)
100 - Powderhorn CDC
101 Fuel Safety Orientation				301 Oh, The Places you will go!				401 Fuel Safety Orientation
102 Beginning Wood Carving (adult)				302 Basic Knots				402 Beginning Wood Carving (youth)
103 A scout and his pocketknife	201 Cub Scout Summer Camp			303 First Aid Reqs for Second Class Rank Advancement		403 Turbocharging Your Cub Pack	501 Annual Planning for Cub Scout Packs
104 Creating Pack Traditions for Growth and Stability	202 The Cub Scout Campfire			304 How to Successfully Host another Scout Group		404 Scouts, BSA Summer Camp	502 Hands-Only CPR
105 The Lost art of Boondoggle	203 First Aid Requirements for First Class Rank Advancement			305 Backpacking Merit Badge - Getting Started		405 Everything You Think You Know About Orienteering Is Wrong	503 How to Run "Introduction to Leadership Skills for Troops & Crews" Training in Your Unit
106 Life after NYLT	204 Hands-Only CPR			306 Camp Staff 101		406 Introduction to Semaphore	504 Eagle Scout Projects
107 Winter Mountaineering with your Troop	205 Philmont- The Mountain Peak Scout Experience			307 WOW!!!! Women in the Woods		407 Scouting Jamborees- In the Nation and In the World!!	505 Venturing 101
108 Bleeding Control (Stop the Bleed)	206 Winter Camping 101 – Now What!			308 Resiliency: Leading in Difficult Times		408 Trek Planning with On-line Maps and Apps	506 Trekking with On-line Maps and Apps
109 Birchbark Expeditions - An Introduction to Canoe Tripping	207 Chaplains Aide Training			309 High Adventures in Scouting (Beyond Philmont)		409 Hammock Camping 101	507 Wilderness Survival Skills - The Top 10 Skills
110 Introduction to Religious Emblems	208 High Adventure Meal Preparation			310 Canoeing in WNY - Where to Go?		410 Becoming Fearless/Building Resilience	508 Introduction to Genealogy – Know Your Roots!
111 Adult Leader Awards & Recognitions	209 Adult Knots			312 How Well Do You Really Know the Guide to Safe Scouting?		411 Protecting your Scout's Online Privacy	509 New Internet Re-Charter Review
112 Council History of our Camps, Through neckerchiefs and Patches	210 Life after Wood Badge			313 Meet you Council Key 3		412 Bleeding Control (Stop the Bleed)
113 Scouting with Autism				314 New Internet Re-Charter Review		413 Wilderness Survival Essentials

Course #	Course Name	Instructor	Course Description	Course Length (Period)	Adult/Youth/Both
100	Powderhorn CDC	Paul Kendzierski	The Powder Horn CDC is a full-day program, meant for future Powder Horn Course Directors, Assistant Course Directors and Staff Members. The CDC is designed to take key council staff through the steps of the Powder Horn Course from initial discussion and planning, through recruitment and publicity, and on to course execution. Part of the CDC will be devoted to reviewing past courses and discussing how no two Powder Horn Courses are alike. It is expected that all participants will have downloaded the current syllabus, read it thoroughly, and have it with them - Powderhorn_syllabus.pdf (scouting.org). If you have any questions, please email Paul Kendzierski at paul.kendzierski@gmail.com.	5	A
101	Fuel Safety Orientation	David Sepulveda	How to deliver the promise when fire is involved. Remember you are not at home or your family's campsite.	2	B
102	Beginning Wood Carving (adult)	Gary Dahlstrom	This hands on Woodcarving course is designed for someone's very first time woodcarving. After some safety rules, and basic knife cuts, the wood chips will fly as students work on their carving. Tools and wood provided. The students can take home their carving	2	A
103	A scout and his pocketknife	Ken Knox	What the Cub Scout leader needs to consider when teaching a Cub Scout about using a pocket knife - this is a hands-on course and you should bring a pocketknife with you. Following this course, you will be prepared to assist your Cub Scout with the Whittling' Chip requirements and the Bear Required Adventure: Bear Claws	1	A
104	Creating Pack Traditions for Growth and Stability	Pete Smith	Tired of last-minute planning, reinventing the wheel, or inconsistency from year to year? Come explore how to create fun events, ceremonies, and activities that can enhance your annual calendar, make your pack unique, and keep your cubs, families, and leaders coming back for more	1	A
105	The Lost art of Boondoggle	Dave Wind	Once part of leather working merit badge, Boondoggle was always a great camp skill. Bring your Lanyards and other projects to show and teach each other how to make something.	1	B

106	Life after NYLT	Darlene Kihlberg	You've completed NYLT; now what?! Have you brought your leadership skills back to your unit? Do you want to take the next step and help others succeed and to feel the sense of excitement by helping to improve Scouting?! There's more to the journey.	1	Y
107	Winter Mountaineering with your Troop	Chris Antholzner	Take your troop to new heights with winter mountaineering skills - learn how to plan, organize and execute a winter experience in the Adirondack High Peaks, bagging summits and sights!	1	B
108	Bleeding Control (Stop the Bleed)	Pati Aine Guzinski	Bleeding Control: Scouts will learn how to stop traumatic bleeding, including the use of a tourniquet.	1	B
109	Birchbark Expeditions - An Introduction to Canoe Tripping	Alan Percy	A high adventure program is a great way to keep older scouts engaged and encourage younger scouts to build skills. Attend this session to learn about this exciting turn-key canoe program for day and week-long expeditions.	1	B
110	Introduction to Religious Emblems	James Smyczynski	This course will describe the role of a Unit Religious Emblems Coordinator and will also describe the process to earn religious emblems. In addition, this course will fulfill the requirement to be a trained Religious Emblems Counselor for Catholic Religious Emblems	1	A
111	Adult Leader Awards and Recognition	Ron Krawczyk		1	A
112	Council History of our Camps, Through neckerchiefs and Patches	AJ Block	A look at our 3 current camps and 4 past camps and the neckerchiefs and patches that were from those camps	1	B
113	Scouting with Autism	Marcus L. Thomeer Ph.D.	Youth with autism make great scouts! This course will teach the fundamentals of autism, including its broad spectrum, and how to help youth with autism succeed in scouting. Two periods will allow for plenty of questions and answers	2	B
201	The Cub Scout Campfire	Brian Welsh	This course covers all the bases of planning and presenting a campfire program which your Pack's families will enjoy and remember	1	A
201	Cub Scout Summer Camp	Josh Stellrecht	All are invited to come to learn about The Lost Treasure of Crystal Lake! Come see what Camp Scouthaven has to offer for the 2022 Season. Expect to learn more about our program plans and have the opportunity to ask questions and provide suggestions to the camp leadership team.	1	A
203	First Aid Requirements for First Class Rank Advancement	Dan McCartan and Ben McCartan	Review all FIRST AID and EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS requirements for 1st Class:	1	B

204	Hands-Only CPR	Pati Aine Guzinski	Scouts will learn how to administer chest compressions to a person in cardiac arrest	1	B
205	Philmont- The Mountain Peak Scout Experience	Jim Heinrich	This course is taught by two Philmont veterans who will show you how to organize and prepare your "Philmont Crew", how to get there, and how to make your trek an unforgettable experience for the leaders and the youths in your unit. Learn how the GNFC organizes and supports your trek making it easy to get your crew to the mountains of New Mexico for your trek. And get the tips you will need to make your trek the best ever!	1	B
206	Winter Camping 101 – Now What!	Edward Lawrence	Intro to Winter Camping. Planning for Winter Camping, Types of accommodations, Nutritional Needs, Types of Gear, Clothing Do's and Don'ts, First Aid, and Misc. items to remember	1	B
207	Chaplains Aide Training	Decan Dan Golinski	Recommended for First Class Rank and above, this training will prepare you to hold the position of Chaplains Aide in our troop. chaplains Aide is a qualified position towards rank advancement for Star, Life and Eagle. Class content will include responsibilities, resources and practical ways to implement your training during meetings and campouts.	1	Y
208	High Adventure Meal Preparation	Jonathan Coupal	Food is the fuel for any adventure. A well-balanced menu, properly prepared will keep your crew well fed with energy enough for the trail. In this session, we share menu planning tips for the backcountry, food preparation methods, and proper waste disposal.	1	B
209	Adult Knots	Keith Lang	LEADERS CAN EARN AWARDS TOO! FIND OUT HOW AND WHICH AWARDS CAN BE EARNED/BESTOWED ON CUB LEADERS, SCOUTS LEADERS, VENTURING LEADERS AND VOLUNTEER LEADERS. IN ADDITION, WHICH APPLICATIONS ARE USED AND THE CORRECT WAY TO COMPLETE THESE APPLICATIONS, AS WELL AS THE CORRECT WAY FOR SUBMISSION, WILL BE COVERED	1	A
210	Life after Wood Badge	Darlene Kihlberg	You've finished your Ticket; now what?! Are you longing to feel that sense of excitement by helping to improve Scouting?! Are you longing to learn more and hang out with like-minded Scouters? Wait - - There's more!	1	A
301	Oh, The Places you will go!	Brian Welsh	This is your chance to learn about the fun places in WNY (and beyond) where you can take your Pack or Den for a day of fun - or an overnight adventure.	1	A
302	Basic Knots	Dave Wind	Learn the uses for and how to tie all the knots for the Scout, Tenderfoot, 2nd Class, and First Class Boy Scout ranks. See how to use these knots to start lashings.	1	B

303	First Aid Requirements for Second Class Rank Advancement	Dan McCartan and Ben McCartan	Review all FIRST AID requirements for 2nd Class:	1	B
304	How to Successfully Host another Scout Group	Edward Lawrence	How to Successfully Host another Scout Group. We will discuss communication, planning, Fundraising/Community Involvement	1	B
305	Backpacking Merit Badge Getting Started	Jonathan Coupal	If you love being able to do overnights in the remote backcountry, the backpacking merit badge can be a worthwhile goal for you. Learn some pointers on how to get started and get some guidance	1	B
306	Camp Staff 101	Josh Stellrecht	Are you ready to be EXTRAORDINARY? Summer Camp Staff members take on the challenge of using the outdoors as a classroom to show scouts the promise of scouting. Come and meet with the Camp Leadership Team and other staff members to learn what being on camp staff is all about. Drops Ins & Camp Staff Alumni are welcome to join the discussion.	1	A
307	WOW!!!! Women in the Woods	Darlene Kihlberg	Let's have an open conversation about peeing and pooping in the woods, hygiene, medications, privacy for all, keeping safe, and any other topic you want to discuss. Recommended for female participants only	1	Y
308	Resiliency: Leading in Difficult Times	Pete Smith	Leadership can be difficult in the best of times. However, add some controversy, conflict, drama, or perhaps a pandemic and the stress and challenges of success can increase exponentially. Fortunately, we have the capacity to rise to the challenge. This session will explore some of these concepts to help you	1	B
309	High Adventures in Scouting (Beyond Philmont)	Jim Heinrich	Has your unit gone to Sea Base, The Summit at Bechtel Reserve, or Northern Tier? These high-adventure activities will make amazing memories for scouts and leaders, and help grow your unit into the cohesive "team" it can become. Two experienced instructors will be your guides through the process of planning, promotion and -most important of all- the adventures that await you.	1	B
310	Canoeing in WNY - Where to Go?	Alan Percy	There are many great canoeing adventures right here in Western NY. We'll share some of our favorite places, some secret places, and plenty of pictures.	1	B

312	How Well Do You Really Know the Guide to Safe Scouting?	Rob Reeves	The Guide to Safe Scouting covers BSA policies and procedures designed to ensure a safe and fun program for our Scouts. Many leaders are familiar with parts of it but may not be up to date on the most recent updates. Join the Polaris District Chairman for an informative session on what the Guide says and doesn't say. We will also cover what resources are available to leaders when they have a question about interpretation and context	1	A
313	Meet your Council Key 3	Gary Decker, Steve Molik, Joe Lane	Hear the perspectives of GNFC's "Key 3" - our Council President, and Commissioner - and have questions answered about our councils present and future	1	A
314	New Internet Re-Charter Review	Kendra and Mark Gaynor	This class will offer hands on assistance reviewing the new online Internet Recharter Process. Feel free to bring your own laptop if you wish.	1	B
401	Fuel Safety Orientation	David Sepulveda	How to deliver the promise when fire is involved. Remember you are not at home or your family's campsite.	2	B
402	Beginning Wood Carving (youth)	Gary Dahlstrom	This hands on Woodcarving course is designed for someone's very first time woodcarving. After some safety rules, and basic knife cuts, the wood chips will fly as students work on their carving. Tools and wood provided. The students can take home their carving	2	Y
403	TURBOCHARGING YOUR CUB PACK	Brian Welsh	Want to turn your unit into a "Super Pack"? This course will teach you tried-and-true methods for recruitment, planning a strong and fun program, and the all-important development of adult volunteers. No matter how big (or small) your Pack – tips and techniques learned here will give it a turbo-boost!	1	A
404	Scouts, BSA Summer Camp	Josh Stellrecht	All are invited to come to learn about The Lost Treasure of Crystal Lake! Come see what Camp Scouthaven has to offer for the 2022 Season. Expect to learn more about our program plans and have the opportunity to ask questions and provide suggestions to the camp leadership team.	1	B
405	Everything You Think You Know About Orienteering Is Wrong	Rob Reeves	Map and compass skills have always been utilized in Scouting, but the sport of orienteering is often misunderstood by Scouts and leaders. Join the President of the Buffalo Orienteering Club for an informative session on what makes orienteering unique and how you can incorporate it into your Troop or Crew program. We will cover what local resources are available, including at our own Camp Schoellkopf, as well as how to help Scouts earn the Orienteering merit badge and First Class rank requirement!	1	B

406	Introduction to Semaphore	Roger Keeney	Introduction to semaphore flag signaling commencing with brief history of semaphore, then by use of mnemonic send and receive charts demonstration of ability to send and receive semaphore without prior knowledge of same. Finally descriptions of adaptations of semaphore by Japan and China into their ideographic languages. Optional following period available for continued hands-on proactive	1	B
407	Scouting Jamborees- In the Nation and In the World!!	Jim Heinrich	Two of the pinnacles of scouting are the National Scout Jamboree and the World Scout Jamboree, each held every four years. This course will teach you about the exciting events that take place at each, and the opportunities units and individuals have to attend them. You will soon be making your plans to attend the National Jamboree at the Summit Bechtel Scout Reserve in West Virginia, and the World Jamborees in South Korea (2023) and Poland (2027).	1	B
408	Trek Planning with On-line Maps and Apps	Mark McCormack	There are many great on-line tools that can help with planning a trek. During this session, we'll review the various tools, some best practices in planning your trek, preparing for a grand adventure!	1	B
409	Hammock Camping 101	Jonathan Coupal	Hammock camping has a number of advantages over tent camping. Get started with this introduction, showing how to select a hammock "kit", how to make it bug-proof and weather-proof, and some best practices on site selection.	1	B
410	Becoming Fearless/Building Resilience	Hon. Acea Mosey	This course will focus on how meditative practice can help youth and adults be more resilient in times of stress, build a warrior mentality and be unshakable when things get chaotic. Learn to fend off negative thoughts and behaviors, build self-confidence and focus, and treat others with respect and gratitude.	1	B
411	Protecting your Scout's Online Privacy	Dan Conley		1	B
412	Bleeding Control (Stop the Bleed)	Pati Aine Guzinski	Bleeding Control: Scouts will learn how to stop traumatic bleeding, including the use of a tourniquet.	1	B
413	Wilderness Survival Essential	Eric Reynolds		1	B
501	Annual Planning for Cub Scout Packs	Ken Knox	What the Cub Scout leader needs to project fund raising goals or unit activity fees based on activities that you plan. An Excel spreadsheet will be used (and available for distribution when a student in this course) to assist in projecting costs for your unit. This is an interactive class to help leaders understand the expenses of a Cub Scout Pack.	1	A

502	Hands-Only CPR	Pati Aine Guzinski	Scouts will learn how to administer chest compressions to a person in cardiac arrest	1	B
503	How to Run "Introduction to Leadership Skills for Troops & Crews" Training in Your Unit	Rob Reeves	Are you offering youth leadership training in your unit? The BSA Introduction to Leadership Skills courses are intended to help Scouts BSA and Venturing youth in leadership positions within their unit understand their responsibilities and to equip them with organizational and leadership skills to fulfill those responsibilities. The courses are designed to be offered at the Troop or Crew level and completion is a prerequisite for Scouts to participate in the more advanced leadership courses: National Youth Leadership Training (NYLT), National Advanced Youth Leadership Experience (NAYLE), and the Kodiak Challenge Trek. During this session, we will review the IULST course syllabus in detail and discuss how you can implement the training program in your Troop or Crew. We will also discuss the GNFC NYLT program and how it can be a key element in your unit's success!	1	A
504	Eagle Scout Projects	Michael Stachowski		1	B
505	Venturing 101	Shannon Gilmartin	Come Learn the basics of the venturing program and all about running a crew!	1	B
506	Trekking with On-line Maps and Apps	Mark McCormack	You've planned your trek with on-line tools and it's time to hit the trail. How to use apps and other tools to navigate and communicate along the trail. Planning for back-up resources for when the batteries die or cell phone coverage is lost.	1	B
507	Wilderness Survival Skills - The Top 10 Skills	Eric Reynolds	You are headed into the wilderness and should be prepared. During this session we'll cover the top 10 wilderness survival skills you should master to be prepared.	1	B
508	Introduction to Genealogy - Know Your Roots!	Maureen Gleason	Interest in genealogy has exploded in recent years - and for good reason! With the tools available today, you can become a genealogist and trace your roots. Learn how (and where) to discover the fascinating history of your family!	1	B
509	New Internet Re-Charter Review	Kendra and Mark Gaynor	This class will offer hands on assistance reviewing the new online Internet Recharter Process. Feel free to bring your own laptop if you wish.	1	B